Supreme Chaplain's Message

The Lord is calling you, dear friends, to bring the Gospel into a broken world. You are called to bring the Gospel into the world of education and commerce, to the world of politics, science, and medicine – at a time when human dignity and common good are often lost sight of. You are called to build strong and loving Catholic families in a time when family life is in decline. But you are not called to be cultural warriors or pessimists – instead, like the lay missionaries that went forth from your country, you are called to a joyful and courageous faith that is infectious. This requires not only that you be well instructed in the Church's teaching but also that your faith be an integral part of your daily life. We do not have the luxury of compartmentalizing our faith and our life – professing the faith on Sunday and denying the faith the rest of the week! Rather, we must bring the faith we profess into our homes and places of work. It must be so much a part of who we are that we readily bear witness to it, always by our example and often by the words we speak. So, dear friends, continue to be a strong community of faith. Continue to contribute a strong and loving faith to the parishes to which you belong. Root your lives in the Gospel and in the Sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist and the Sacrament of Reconciliation; ensure that your homes are filled with the light and joy of the Gospel as you strive to hand on the faith to the next generation; be a source of priestly vocations to the Archdiocese of Baltimore and an example of what neighbor-to-neighbor charity toward those in need. Consider what a difference you would make if each one of you brought just one person back to the faith during the year ahead!

Archbishop William E. Lori

Brother Knights and Lovely Ladies:

October finally brings a change from the hot weather of summer to the cooler, comfortable weather of fall, and the beginnings of color changes on the trees. It also gives us a chance to reflect on the changes that have occurred in our lives recently. Have they been positive ones? Have they mainly benefited ourselves or have they benefited others?

If we've been thinking too much of our own needs lately, perhaps it's time to "change like the leaves" and begin making others more of a priority in our lives. Have that neighbor who lives alone? Pay him/her a visit, call them up, find out how they're doing, and make them feel wanted, not forgotten. Always wanted to volunteer at a soup kitchen? Call Our Daily Bread Volunteer Hotline and donate a couple hours of time serving a meal. The visitors will certainly appreciate it!

Whatever it may be, just follow the words of St. John Paul II, whose feast day we celebrate on October 22nd: "Be not afraid! Open wide the doors to Christ!"

May Our Lord bless you with His peace

Grand Knight’s Message

Grand Knight Bernie Wrisk

Fall is here and the first quarter of our Columbian year has passed. Much has been accomplished by our Council to give praises to our Lord for His Graces. More is to be done for which we need to ask for His continued Blessings. As we continue to be servants to our Lord and Savior may we be encouraged by the verse our Lord has given in Philippians 4:13 “I can do all things through Him who strengthens me.”

Many successes were accomplished in this past month thanks to the efforts of many. The start of the seven week long Christ Life Young Adult group began mid-September. The organizers were very happy to see 60 attendees come to be a part of this faith building endeavor. With the attendance of brother Knight Garry Gregg and the assistance of Steve Schwing we hope to welcome some new recruits out of this bunch. The crab feast that supported the St Joseph Monastery and our council was an incredible sell out and success again thanks to the leadership of PGK Mike Doetzer and many, many Knights volunteering their time. I know that two recruits for sure came out of this event. John Reardon was blessed with the perfect weather for the Flea Market so that many sales were made and people enjoyed their time shopping.

October brings many more opportunities for us to share our time, talents, treasure ... and to find more recruits.

October brings many more opportunities for us to share our time, talents, treasure ... and to find more recruits. By the time you receive this you may have already helped in our recruitment drive at all St. Mark masses during the first weekend of the month. Mid-month on Saturday the 15th, many “Young at Heart” members are needed to help transport the boxes of shredding material from cars to the shredder truck. The day after, hopefully will be our Youth Soccer Shootout competition up at Catonsville High school. Find more information on these in our Program Director section and or by attending our business meeting.

Our Council is what you make of it. We are as strong and thriving as you help and commit to any part of our efforts as a group. Even if you can’t attend an event we hope that you keep us in your prayers and consider how you can share the opportunity with others in your network. We do pray for you and your families as we gather together and always remember to give thanks to all that have supported our efforts.

Vivat Jesus!

Fall is finally here, the weather is breaking, and soon the little (or not so little) ghosts and goblins will be out begging for candy on Halloween. One thing we might want to celebrate on October 31st is that it is the FEAST day of St. Wolfgang of Ratisbon. So, while we are feasting, consider St. Wolfgang. This brief bio was taken from Catholic Online:

“Wolfgang (d. 994) + Bishop and reformer. Born in Swabia, Germany, he studied at Reichenau under the Benedictines and at Wurzburg before serving as a teacher in the cathedral school of Trier. He soon entered the Benedictines at Einsiedeln (964) and was appointed head of the monastery school, receiving ordination in 971. He then set out with a group of monks to preach among the Magyars of Hungary, but the following year (972) was named bishop of Regensburg by Emperor Otto II (r. 973-983). As bishop, he distinguished himself brilliantly for his reforming zeal and his skills as a statesman. He brought the clergy of the diocese into his reforms, restored monasteries, promoted education, preached enthusiastically, and was renowned for his charity and aid to the poor, receiving the title Eleemosynarius Major (Grand Almoner). He also served as tutor to Emperor Henry II (r. 1014-1024) while he was still king. Wolfgang died at Puppington near Linz, Austria. He was canonized in 1052 by Pope St. Leo IX (r. 1049-1054). Feast day: October 31.”

And please remember when your little ghosts and goblins (or you) get sick from all that loot, that St. Wolfgang is the Patron Saint of...Stomach Ailments!

Chancellor's Report

Chancellor Rick Ostowicz
rickounc@gmail.com

The beginning of the fall season always provides us with a virtual kaleidoscope of vibrant colors that fill the tree lines and landscapes. The leaves are changing colors—and becoming more vibrant and beautiful—during their last gasp of life in the annual cycle. Once the colors fade, the leaves will fall off of the trees and die, as they do every year. It is this “death” that, following a barren winter, allows for the rebirth of spring.

In our spiritual lives, we have the opportunity to experience a rebirth, or renewal, without having to suffer death or an extended period of dormancy. We, as Knights, have been given a very powerful renewal tool—the holy Rosary. This gift, placed in your hands as you became a Knight of Columbus, provides a daily source of refreshment for your soul.

Venerable Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen, a master communicator who had the ability to communicate the Christian message to all people, had this to say about the Rosary: “The Rosary is the best therapy for these distraught, unhappy, fearful, and frustrated souls, precisely because it involves the simultaneous use of three powers: the physical, the vocal, and the spiritual, and in that order.”

With that said, in this month of October—the month of the most holy Rosary, I encourage you to not only carry your Rosary with you (as promised), but to pray and live your Rosary each and every day.

Program Director's Report

Program Director PGK Barry Casanova

BWCasanova@msn.com

Brothers and Patapsco Council family: October has arrived and the first Surge reports were submitted—electronically no less. No, this technological dinosaur did not implement this innovation, only supported the idea and did some editing. I guess it is really time to pass the torch to the next generation who are a lot more tech savvy than those of us who remember Eisenhower being elected—the first time. And really remember where they were when Kennedy was shot. 9/11 seems to have taken the place of that life memorable event for some of the younger folks, but, think about this: the kids BORN then are now looking forward to getting drivers' licenses next year. We do not live in boring times that is for sure. A caution, there are a lot of scams out there. I have even gotten several bogus IRS calls to my Law office—yes, I do some tax law--talk about nerve! At any rate let's hope that last weekend's Joint Crab Feast with St. Joseph Monastery Parish was a great success. We also have a Shredding Day, a Tootsie Roll/Recruiting Day and other activities coming up soon so check out the PK calendar and website. We have about five weeks to endure and the US elections will be ready for the history books. Please look at the issues and vote your conscience as an informed voter—get both sides of the story before you decide in which direction the US should move for the next four years. There are a lot of factors to study from national security, jobs, immigration, jobs, integrity and honesty in office holders, jobs, terrorism threats, jobs and constitutional issues. It appears that not only executive and legislative power is to be decided, but the direction of the Federal Judiciary also seems to be an open issue which will be determined for the next generation by the results of this election. We have seen a lot of evolving of societal norms in the past decade—for good or evil depending on your politics. My opinion, we have seen the death of commonsense, but that is just an old curmudgeon's view. Brothers, join us at a business meeting and welcome your new brothers—yes, we are still successfully working to rejuvenate the Council. Keep up the prayers for those threatened with religious violence worldwide and our men and women in uniform, including those wearing blue. Mary, Queen of Knights, pray for us.

Beaumont News

Every Friday night, the Council home provides a dining spot for our Brothers and guests known as the "Knights Out Inn." On average, we get 35 to 50 visitors every Friday, so the work involved is substantial.

The work involved in running the Knights Out Inn is as follows: 1) buying the food; 2) loading and unloading the truck transporting the food; 3) storing the food; 4) cooking the food; 5) serving the food; 6) cleaning up after the meal. Running the Knights Out Inn is a task that continues to fall upon the same few members, whose average age is almost 70 years old. Simply put, we need our younger members to join in the effort and help on Friday nights. Additionally, we need the younger Brothers to help us maintain our building. We know our younger members have families, and responsibilities that go with these families, but we hope that some could help at least a couple of days a month. We look forward to seeing you at the Knights Out Inn on Fridays, not just as guests, but as volunteers. May God bless all our Brother Knights.

A unique exhibit, "God's Servant First: The Life and Legacy of Thomas More," opened Friday, Sept. 16, at the Saint John Paul II National Shrine in Washington, D.C. It is the only location where the exhibit will appear in the United States.

The exhibit includes artifacts never before displayed in the United States as well as relics of St. Thomas More. More was lord high chancellor of England under King Henry VIII from 1529 to 1532. He sacrificed prestige, influence, and ultimately his life because he refused to betray his religious convictions.

Declaring Thomas More the patron saint of statesmen and politicians in 2000, St. John Paul II said More's life and martyrdom offer a testimony that

The exhibit includes a reproduction of St. Thomas More's cell.

Knights of Columbus and the Christian Heritage Centre at Stonyhurst, England, the exhibit features over 60 artifacts, most of which are from the Stonyhurst College Collections.

Right Honorable Lord Alton of Liverpool, chairman of the Christian Heritage Centre at Stonyhurst, said, "The exhibition highlights the contemporary relevance of St. Thomas More, particularly in relation to the widespread religious persecution that continues daily in the Middle East, Pakistan, North Korea and many other places across the globe."

Patrick Kelly, executive director of the shrine, said, "Even 500 years after his death, Thomas More's example remains thoroughly modern. He is an eloquent example of courageous Christian discipleship, and it is our hope that this exhibit will inspire others to imitate his virtues and his extraordinary fidelity to God and to a well-formed conscience."

The objects on display include a first folio by William Shakespeare; a hat owned by More; a religious garment embroidered by Katherine of Aragon, the first wife of King Henry VIII; and relics of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher.

The exhibit also includes the pectoral cross and saddle chalice of John Carroll, the first Catholic bishop in the United States, who was deeply influenced by More's example in his own work to protect the rights of American Catholics in an era of hostility.

More was executed in 1535 for refusing to recognize Henry VIII as the head of the Church in England. More and Henry had been friends and even worked together on a treatise in defense of the Catholic faith. As a popular and respected statesman, More's refusal was perceived as an implicit challenge to the legitimacy of the monarch's claims. Bishop John Fisher was executed within a month of More, on the same charge of treason.

The 20th-century English writer G. K. Chesterton said More "may come to be counted the greatest Englishman, or at least the greatest historical character in English history. For he was above all things historic. ... If there had not happened to be that particular man at that particular moment, the whole of history would have been different."

The exhibit will be open daily until March 31, 2017. Additional information is available at: www.jp2shrine.org/jp/en/news/thomas-more-exhibit.html.

DON'T CROWDFUND YOUR FAMILY'S FUTURE

There is a new phenomenon sweeping the internet: crowdfunding. Pioneered by organizations like GoFundMe, crowdfunding allows anyone to donate to a project or cause online.

Crowdfunding is increasingly being used to raise funds for grieving families. Chances are you've seen this more than once. Someone passes away, and within a day or two, a representative from the family opens a crowdfunding page to raise funds to pay for funeral expenses and medical bills.

Without question, crowdfunding is a great way to harness the power of the internet for charitable ends, but it is often insufficient.

Recent studies show that the average crowdfunding memorial page raises

$2,000-$2,200 — far below the average cost of funeral services.<sup>1</sup> Grieving families are left to deal with the shortfall as well as the additional stress of soliciting donations, figuring out how to access the money and calculating platform fees.

Since life insurance guards against one of life's only certainties, it's a product that nearly everyone needs. The question is not "Do I need life insurance?" but rather "Who should I get it from?"

Who Should I Get It From?

Every life insurance company sells life insurance. There are hundreds of them in North America. But there's only one life insurance company that belongs to you.

From the beginning, the Knights of Columbus has been determined to offer insurance by brother Knights for brother Knights and to uphold the Catholic commitment that has animated our Order since Father McGivney's time.

Today, our insurance program protects hundreds of thousands of families, with more than $100 billion in force. Last year alone, Knights of Columbus families received more than $800 million in insurance benefits.

Being your insurance company also means that we have to be ethical, responsible, Catholic and charitable — just as you would expect.

Recently we received our third consecutive "World's Most Ethical" company designation by the Ethisphere Institute, and since 1975, the Knights of Columbus has been among the most highly rated life insurers in North America.<sup>2</sup> We refuse to invest in companies who deal in lines of business that run contrary to church teaching. We also use proceeds from our insurance business to donate to Catholic and charitable causes around the world. The insurance business and local councils are the two primary sources for the more than $1.55 billion the Knights of Columbus has donated to charity in the past decade.

Our strength cannot be beaten. Our ethical pedigree cannot be questioned. And our Catholic commitment is never compromised.

Not every life insurance company can say that.

How Much Do I Need?

As a Knight, you have a full-time, professional brother Knight field agent to call your own. His job — his mission — is to help you and your family evaluate your situation and determine how much coverage is needed to help meet your needs within your budget.

It's a proven fraternal system that has helped countless families when they need it most.

So, as we observe Life Insurance Awareness Month, don't leave your family's future to chance charity. Protect your family with the safety and guarantees of life insurance from the Knights of Columbus.
